

Foodbank opens in Caldicot

Can anyone donate UHT milk or tins of potatoes?????

*Caldicot Foodbank, is a partnership with Caldicot Churches together, Raven House Trust Newport and the local community. It is now able to provide emergency food parcels to bridge the gap when an unexpected crisis hits a family or an individual.

*Local professionals, such as social workers, health visitors, doctors and housing officers etc who work with people in the Caldicot and surrounding area refer people in emergency need to the foodbank.

*The foodbank issues an emergency food parcel designed to last for a few days, bridging the gap while other assistance is accessed. People will be issued with up to 3 parcels.

*The volunteers staff the distribution area. People in need of a food parcel will produce a completed referral form signed and dated by a local agency and collect the parcel from this base.

HOW YOU CAN HELP

- * Fundraising /publicity
- * In the food storage area, sorting out collections and donations from the public and making up food parcels
- * In the pantry by meeting people as they come to collect the food parcel, offering a hot drink and issuing the parcel
- * Organising a food collection in your work, church, school or local group or society

Caldicot Foodbank is open on Fridays 10-12 noon
